A BRIEF HISTORY OF BRUNCH

In the early to mid-1900s, brunch offered a platform for socially acceptable day drinking. Brunch is the genesis of several popular cocktails including the Mimosa and the Bloody Mary.

Brunch became popular in the 1930s because Hollywood stars making transcontinental train trips would often stop for late-morning meals term 'brunch' was coined in 1895, described as a meal for 'Saturday-night carousers'
